

Council Members

Corporations that contribute a minimum of $25,000 annually and individuals who contribute a minimum of $5,000 annually are recognized as members of the RFF Council. Every year, this elite group provides much of the unrestricted financial support required to run the daily business of our organization, enabling RFF to carry out its mission to improve environmental and natural resource policymaking worldwide through objective social science research of the highest caliber. In 2002, we received generous gifts totaling more than $965,000 from our Council members. We are truly proud to acknowledge these individuals and companies.

Corporate Donors

Corporations worldwide value RFF's independent and nonpartisan research, which focuses on issues critical to their businesses and bottom lines. Although they may not always agree with RFF's recommendations, the corporate community appreciates the need for objective analysis in often-controversial policy debates. The unrestricted support RFF receives from companies and trade associations helps to ensure that its tradition of independent, excellent research continues.

DEVELOPMENT

REVENUE PERCENTAGES In fiscal year 2002, RFF's operating revenue was $9.3 million, more than 80% of which came from individual contributions, foundation grants, unrestricted corporate contributions, and government grants. This income includes one $2 million contribution to endow a chair at RFF. RFF augments its income by an annual withdrawal from its reserve fund to support operations. At the end of fiscal year 2002, the reserve fund was valued at $24.5 million.

EXPENSE PERCENTAGES RFF research and educational programs continued to grow in 2002, representing almost three quarters of total expenses. Management and administration and development expenses combined were only 20% of the total. The balance is made up of goods sold and building operations related to facilities rented to other nonprofit organizations.
